STARRY NIGHTS CONCERT SERIES

LOCATION: FRANK KITTS PARK

The stars glitter in the sky and on stage, and Frank Kitts Park comes to life. Some of Wellington's top acts will play in an eclectic series of concerts along the waterfront. You'll be whisked away by the stars, the sounds and the sight of the sea.

NEW ZEALAND SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Time: 8pm

Date: Thursday 5 February

NZ's own Tina Cross, diva of pop, rock and soul, performs with the NZSO for one night only! In collaboration with well-known music director Carl Doy, Tina Cross with singers Grant Sullivan and Bella Kalolo (from Dancing with the Stars) will perform hits Nothing but Dreams, Night on Disco Mountain, Final Countdown, Young Hearts Run Free, Cry Me A River plus more! Carl Doy and the NZSO will also play arrangements of popular music by great 20th century melody-makers, songs from the worlds of Broadway, Latin America, soul and rock. There will also be a special Phantom of the Opera medley in tribute to the late great Rob Guest. So get on down to Frank Kitts Park for a magical night with the stars beneath the stars.

TOMMY LOVE'S VALENTINE SPECTACULAR!

Time: 8.30pm

Date: Saturday 14 February

This Valentine's Day, let Tommy Love uncover ... the lover in you. Las Vegas legend in his own mind, Tommy Love is back for a fun-filled night of music, entertainment and infinite wisdom. For the first time Tommy shares his own inspirational journey of love – from the boyhood stirrings of passion to the phenomenon that is Love – the Man, and the almost mystical power he has over the ladies. With help from his luscious Loungerines, sexy sequined showgirls and the sensational Loungerillo Orchestra, Tommy's gonna love you just as much as he can. And he can...

FUR PATROL

Time: 8pm

Date: Thursday 19 February

After 12 years churning and crafting their ethereal rumble, Fur Patrol are back with a vengeance. Pared down to a three-piece, they're a whole new beast. It's raw and it's hungry, and bristling with simplistic beauty. Julia Deans' magical vocals are more powerful than ever. It's light and it's dark ... it's impossible pop. Fur Patrol are writing, hands down, the best music of their career and they cannot wait to get it into your heads.

KING KAPISI

Time: 8pm

Date: Thursday 26 February

Hip-hop veteran King Kapisi returns to his hometown to play at Starry Nights. The King has a taste for reggae, funk and soul, so don't expect only phat beats and rapping. The entire waterfront will be hopping up and down one minute, and dropping down to dancehall tempo the next.
